

Dear Third Graders,

This summer you are required to read Freckle Juice by Judy Blume. There are questions you need to respond to after reading each chapter. Remember your capitalization and punctuation. I also love neat writing in third grade! You are also pretending you are the illustrator! How would you design the cover? All sheets for this assignment are attached. This assignment is due the first day of school, and will be your first reading grade. Each day it is late you will lose 5 points.

Read this summer! Choose books that you love and interest you! If you have any questions please feel free to email me: kquinn@omcschool.com.

I hope you enjoy this book and many others this summer!
Happy Reading!

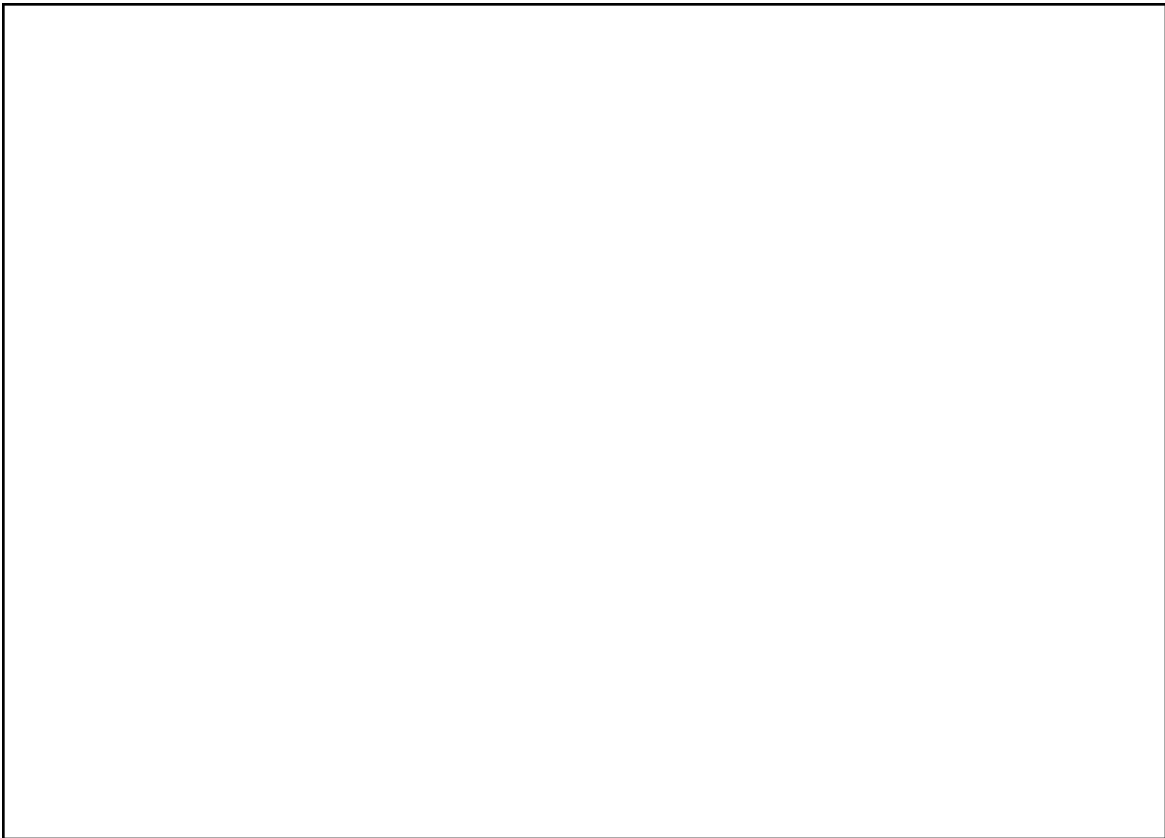

Mrs. Pownall
