

Hello, upcoming 6th graders and parents!

My name is Ms. Salamone, and I will be your students' ELA teacher next year. Attached, you will find the summer work for 6th-grade ELA. I hope you all have an amazing summer!

SUMMER READING:

- Students are asked to read and write a report on one of the fiction books included in this list:

- Out of My Mind	Draper, Sharon
- Ghost	Reynolds, Jason
- The Lemonade War	Davies, Jacqueline
- Black Beauty	Sewell, Anna
- Hatchet	Paulsen, Gary
- Shouting at the Rain	Mullaly Hunt, Lynda
- A Song for a Whale	Kelly, Lynne
- The Unteachables	Korman, Gordon
- Tuck Everlasting	Babbitt, Natalie
- Wonder	Palacio, R.J.

Essay Assignment:

- Students must write a four-paragraph essay about one of the following things:
 1. Writing about a major character who changes throughout the story. Discuss his/her initial character, the force(s) that cause the change(s), and how the character evolves because of the struggles he/she has endured.
 2. Discuss the book's theme and how the author communicates this message to the audience.
 3. Character Study: Write about your favorite character in the book. Why you connected with them and what makes them memorable. How do their actions affect the story?
 4. Describe the setting of the story and how it influences the characters and the plot.

Your essay should include the following paragraphs:

- Introduction: A quick 5-6 sentence summary of the book that you read.
- Body Paragraph 1: 6-7 sentences discussing the topic of your choosing from above.
- Body Paragraph 2: 6-7 sentences discussing the topic of your choosing from above.

- Conclusion: 5-6 sentence summary of how you felt about the book and an overall review of the book.

Simple Solutions:

- All students will bring home their simple solutions book from school to finish over the summer. This should be turned in by the first week of school.
